

Cave de la Brunière - St-Léonard

Cave de la Brunière is in the village of St-Léonard, close to the town of Sion.

Its founder, Georges Morand, ran the Brunière winery from 1971 to 2001, when he passed the torch to his children Claude-Alain and Stéphane. They, in turn, were joined in 2008 by Christophe, son of Claude-Alain.

A true family business, Cave de la Brunière offers epicureans a highly original tour that combines a walk along the walls of vines with a wine tasting in a traditional vine hut. Their recently renovated carnotzet (rustic wine bar) also promises wine buffs some delightful discoveries.
